

Create an image for Bristol Creatives and win £250!

Bristol Creatives is running a competition to find an image that represents the diverse range of creativity in Bristol. The winning image will be used on a flyer and poster as part of the public launch of the Bristol Creatives new online Creative Directory and Event Calendar, which can be found at <http://www.bristolcreatives.co.uk/>

Extended Deadline: 12noon on Friday 20 April 2007

The Prize:

There is a prize of £250 for the winning entry, as well as an exhibition of the best entries at the <http://www.bocabar.co.uk/> at Paintworks in May 2007 and an online exhibition of the best entries on the Bristol Creatives website.

<http://www.outofhand.co.uk/> is sponsoring the competition and will print 5,000 A6 flyers and 50 A4 posters of the winning design, which will be used to promote Bristol Creatives and will be distributed around Bristol. They will also print an A2 poster of the winning design that will be presented to the winner at the opening night of the exhibition at the Bocabar.

The Background:

Bristol Creatives is a networking initiative for creative people in the city, providing opportunities for development and growth. We organise marketing and networking events and provide online networking and information through a dynamic website.

Bristol Creatives has recently launched a Creative Directory and Event Calendar facility on the website, where members can list their business and show images of their work and promote forthcoming exhibitions, events, performances, etc for free!

Visit <http://www.bristolcreatives.co.uk> to find out more and to register as a member by 'creating a new account'.

The Brief:

Create an image that represents the wide diversity of creativity in Bristol, this could be an illustration, painting, piece of graffiti, photograph, etc. The artwork needs to be submitted in an A4 portrait format for the purposes of the exhibition and for a run of A4 posters, bear in mind that the image must also work as an A6 flyer.

The Rules:

You must be registered as a member on the Bristol Creatives website and have listed yourself in the Creative Directory before you can enter. You can do this for free by visiting <http://www.bristolcreatives.co.uk>, click 'create a new account' and following the instructions. You will receive an email explaining how to list yourself in the Creative Directory once you have set up your account (this whole process should take you about 10 minutes if you already have a description of your business or practice and a few photos ready).

Please deliver your A4 portrait artwork to Bristol East Side Traders, Brunswick Court, Brunswick Square, Bristol, BS2 8PE by 12noon on Friday 20 April 2007 at the latest. You must ensure that your name and telephone number are clearly marked on the back of your artwork.

The winning design will be chosen by Bristol Creatives and Out of Hand and the winner will be notified by the end of April, as will all the entries that have been selected to be part of the exhibition at the Bocabar. Please note that you will be able to collect your artwork from Bristol East Side Traders if your design hasn't been selected for the exhibition. If your artwork is selected you will be able to collect it after the exhibition (if it hasn't been sold). Either way we will contact you to let you know when your image is ready for collection.

We look forward to seeing some interesting entries.
